THE HIGH TREASON TRIAL

CASEMENT'S STATEMENT.

At his trial at the Old Bailey Sir Roger Casement (as he was designated at that time) read the following statement: My Lord, and Gentlemen of the Jury, I desire to say a few words only with reference to some statements which have been made by the prosecution. As to my pension and the honor of knighthood conferred upon me, I would say one word. My pension I have earned by services rendered and it was assigned to me by law. Knighthood it was not in my power to refuse. There are in evidence against me statements given in evidence against me concerning which I say—

First, that I never at any time advised Irishmen to fight with the Turks against the Russians nor to fight with Germans on the Western front.

Secondly, I never asked Irishmen to fight for Germany. I have always claimed that an Irishman has no right to fight for any land but Ireland.

Thirdly, the horrible insinuation that I got my own people's nations reduced to starvation point because they did not join the Irish Brigade is an abominable falsehood. The ration was necessarily reduced throughout Germany owing to the blockade. They were reduced among the other prisoners at exactly the same time and to the same extent as to the German soldiers and the civil population of Germany.

The other suggestion, that men were sent to punishment camps at my instance for not joining the Irish Brigade, is one which I need hardly pause to refute. It is devoid of all foundation.

Fourthly, gentlemen, there is a widespread imputation of German gold. I owe it to those in Ireland who are assailed with me on this ground to kill the lie for all. It was published by newspapers in America, I think, in this country, and called to America and instructed my American lawyer, Mr. Counsellor Doyle, to proceed against those papers for libel. Those who know me know the incredibility of these malicious imputations, for they have never sold myself to any man or to any Government, and have never allowed any Government to use me.

From the first moment that I landed on the continent until I came home again to Ireland I neither asked for nor accepted a single penny of foreign money, either for myself or for any Irish cause, nor for any purpose whatever, but only the money of Irishmen. I refuse to be a greater, a far higher, a far older assemblage of justices—that of the people of Ireland. Since in the act which have led to this trial, it was the people of Ireland who sought to serve me, and alone I leave my judgment and my sentence in their hands.

The prisoner, at the conclusion of his statement, addressing the jury, said that he wished to thank them for their verdict. He said that his observations did not in any way reflect on their verdict. He maintained that he had a right to be tried in Ireland, and he asked them how any one of them would feel in a converse case if he had landed in England and had been earned over to Ireland by stealth and under false name to be tried in a country inimical against him and believing him to be a criminal.

The usher then proclaimed the order of death was passed.

All three Judges then assumed the black cap.

The Lord Chief Justice, addressing the prisoner, said—

Sir Roger Casement, you have been found guilty of treason on evidence which in our opinion was conclusive. Your crime was that of assisting the enemy, during the terrible war in which we were engaged. The duty now devolves upon me to pronounce sentence upon you.

Sentence of death by hanging was then passed in the usual form.

The prisoner bowed and smiled, and then left the dock.

RUSSIA'S RECOVERY.

TO-MORROW will be the second anniversary of the declaration of war by Germany against Russia; and all who sympathise with the Allied cause must rejoice to know that Germany is unable on this occasion to view the progress of events with anything like the satisfaction she had a year ago. August 1915 is recorded in a diary of the war as "a month of distress to Russia and her friends and of triumph to the Austro-Germans." By that time the armies of Germany and Austria had succeeded in rolling back the great armies of Russia which had advanced in the early months of the war to the very frontiers of the enemy territory. They had, indeed, invaded East Prussia to the region of the Masurian Lakes, they had swept over Galicia to beyond the San, and had reached the frontier of Posen and Silesia. But the first anniversary of the war found the Russian Armies rolled back. Poland, the Baltic Provinces and a considerable part of Russia proper were by the first anniversary of the war in German hands. If the German bulletins can be trusted, over a million Russians were captured between May and the end of August last year.
Germany, as everybody now knows, had concentrated on the Power which her War Lords had come to regard as the weaker antagonist—weaker because she was practically without the munitions for a war on such a scale. In this enterprise Germany and Austria have been likened to armed men attacking an unarmed man. The Russians were unable to stand against the enemy's gun concentration and retired, and continued to retreat from line to line until a practically straight line was reached from Riga to Tarnopol. The German battles had been won by a great superiority of guns and a prodigious expenditure of ammunition; but she had failed to achieve a decision, for she had not succeeded in destroying the Russian Army, nor even in destroying the confidence of the Russian nation in ultimate victory. It was at the moment of Russia's greatest misfortune that the Tsar declared that, for Russia, there could be no end of the war until every German soldier had been driven from the soil of Russia.

On the eve of the second anniversary of the war, we see that Germany no longer possesses the initiative

The Russian Armies, immensely strengthened and equipped with the munitions of war in a way that enable them to meet the enemy on at least equal terms in that respect, have commenced to come on again, strengthened in their resolution to drive the enemy from Russian soil.
In the past two months the world has witnessed a wonderful Russian recovery and this second anniversary of the war sees her well started on the task of recovering all the territory she lost. The daily reports now coming from the Russian front, combined with the equally inspiring news from the western front, contain for us an assurance of the certainty of victory for the Allies. After the very serious defeats which our enemies have suffered both on the Eastern and the Western fronts we may well believe that their resistance will grow steadily weaker, seeing that they have fought again and again with the utmost desperation without success. Indeed, a very marked change has come over the tone of the German Press in the last few weeks. A recent telegram said: "Their articles indicate a more pessimistic spirit and discuss the possibility of a military defeat. The Hamburger Nachrichten, for instance, hitherto one of the most bellicose sheets, asks what is going to become of Germany without colonies, without seapower, without commerce and without indemnities. KARL VON WIEGAND, the leader of pro-German propaganda in the American Press, says that the Germans have lost the military initiative and doubts whether the Austrians will be able to withstand the Russians. Why the German Government allows the publication of such expressions is puzzling.
Some writers assume that it is being done in order to prepare the German public for the reception of bad news, but various subjects of neutral States who have recently returned from Berlin declare that the general optimistic feeling has not abated owing to the popular ignorance of the real condition of affairs." But that ignorance cannot be much longer preserved. Another significant item of news is that the second anniversary of the war is to see a "peace with honour" propaganda started throughout Germany.
Professor HARNACK being mentioned as one of the leaders of the movement.
It is evidently recognised in Germany that the time has come to prepare for the end—but it must be such an end as did not enter into the expectations of the German Junkers when they forced this terrible war upon the world.

THE MAGISTRACY.
STOLE A FEW LEAVES.
SOLICITOR PROSECUTES THREE CHINESE.

Three men stood in the dock in Mr.
G. N. Orme's Court this morning on a charge of stealing a handful of common dock leaves valued at 10 cents from the garden at 7 Robinson Road, the property of Mr. M. J. D. Stephens.
Mr. Stephens asked for the charge to include trespassing for an unlawful purpose. Defendants could not have been there for a lawful purpose, he said.
On Friday the occupier of the house left and returned him the key stating that everything was all right but when the articles in the house were gone over with the schedule there was found to be missing a whole heap of things.
While he could not charge defendants with the theft he asked his Worship to examine the list of missing articles. Defendants were found in the grounds and the presumption was that they knew something about it, and perhaps the picking of dock leaves was all a blind. That being so he asked his Worship to fine them or punish them. They were on the premises for an unlawful purpose and took something of no value.
Mr. Orme: Don't say that; there must be some value or else no charge.
Mr. Stephens said he would not say of no value and for the purposes of the case he would put it at ten cents. There was a man which he thought with the assistance of the Police he might catch in connection with the missing articles.
A watchman was put in charge of the place at 6 p.m. on Saturday and the following morning he saw the defendants in the garden.
The watchman gave evidence, stating he shut up all the windows and went to bed.
One previous conviction for stealing against the first defendant was put in by Inspector Kent.
The first defendant was sent to gaol for a month and the other two to 14 days' imprisonment each.

OPERATOR GETS TWO MONTHS.

Mr. Orme this morning sentenced Jose Monter, a cinematograph operator, to two months' imprisonment for the theft of two postal orders. The Magistrate said defendant had acted as a coward in attempting to implicate a young man like Abbas.

SAD DEATH AT KOWLOON.

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Brown, wife of Mr. Alan O.
Brown, Headmaster of the Wansai School, which occurred early yesterday morning in sad circumstances.
Mrs. Brown came to Hongkong about a year ago with her husband, who was then returning from leave, and her happy disposition drew around her a large circle of friends and acquaintances. On the 25th inst. she was confined, of a still-born child, but Mrs. Brown's condition was so favourable as to give the doctors every hope of her full recovery.
Early on Sunday morning a change was observed and the doctor was sent for at 6 a.m., but she passed peacefully away an hour later, the cause of death being pulmonary embolism.
The funeral took place at the Happy Valley yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. Representatives of the Kowloon C.C., of which Mr. Brown is an ardent member, were present. Widespread sympathy is extended to Mr. Brown in his great bereavement. Wreaths and crosses were sent by Mr. and Mrs.
Wolf and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hyde and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Warden and Mrs. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Claxton, Mr. and Mrs. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralphs, Mrs. George Sachse, Capt. and Mrs. Liddell, Mr. and Mrs. Moore Mead, Mr. and Mrs.
Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Piercy, Mr. and Mrs. Crapnell, Mr. D. J.
Mackenzie, Mr. Weaver, Mr.
Handyside, Mr. Forster, Captain Wheeler, and a big cross from the Kowloon Cricket Club.

of the 15th King's Royal Rifle, has been wounded in the neck, and is now in the Countess of Pembroke's Private Hospital, Wilton House, Salisbury.

One fatal Chinese case of bulonic plague was recorded last week. During the same period there was also a fatal fatal case of purpural fever and one case of small-pox.

The disappearance of $5,000 worth of jewellery, belonging to Mrs.
Winterhalter (wife of the Admiral in command of the United States Squadron in the Far East), who is staying at the Palace Hotel, was reported to the Shanghai Police last week, and a handsome reward is offered for the recovery of the missing articles which were said to have been either stolen or lost on the afternoon of July 20. The property consists of three rings, a diamond solitaire, platinum setting, a two-diamond ring, also with platinum setting, and the third a three-carat ruby surrounded by ten small diamonds.

tion of politics; but the President

Quintuple Group and from an American group of financiers amounting to owing to the unsettled political situation.

on August 1st. President Li Yuen Hung will attend the opening and read a message emphasising his respect for the Constitution.

Wong Ka Cheong, the Chairman, will then open the session, and the convocting the Parliament.

Hung will deliver an address of welcome to the members. The President will also take his oath of office as President of the Republic.

FIGHTING CLOSE TO CANTON.

The Kwangsi and Yunnan troops after midnight on Friday, opened fire on General Lung Chai Kwong's troops in the vicinity of the Five-Span Bridge, near Wong Sha. Big guns as well as machine guns were employed. At daybreak General Lung's forces at Wong Sha and warships at Pak Ho Tan opened fire on the enemy with their big guns, but their firing is stated to have been ineffective. It considerably alarmed the people of Canton, however, and all the shops in the city were closed with the exception of those selling rice and firewood. Many wounded soldiers were brought into the city for medical treatment.

SOLICITOR'S CLAIM DISMISSED.

QUESTIONS OF EXTRA COST

AND COURTESY.

Mr. B. C. Faithful who appeared as plaintiff in a claim at the Summary Court had to pay the costs of the day and suffer the dismissal of the action on a technical objection raised by Mr. C. F. Mason.
The claim was for $45 for professional services rendered and the defendant was Tan Li Cheong trading as the Yee Cheong and Yee Cheong, 22, Hu Chan Village, Ping-shan, New Territories.
Mr. Mason argued that the Judge had no jurisdiction under the New Territories Ordinance adding that leave must be obtained from the Magistrate for a sum not exceeding $200 before the case could proceed.
One could not bring an action before a Judge that had no jurisdiction.
Mr. Justice Hazeland said it seemed very clear that he had no jurisdiction.
Mr. Faithful said Mr. Mason only gave him notice of his objection about fifteen minutes on Saturday and he had no time to go into it.
Mr. Mason: I am not bound to tell you; it was an act of courtesy that I did.
Mr. Faithful said if his Lordship decided he had no jurisdiction then he (Mr. Faithful) would sue in the New Territories. "I should have thought," he added, "that my friend would have advised his client to pay.
He knew it was a perfectly honest claim."
Mr. Mason: That is what I do not know. I am instructed that my friend has misinstructed himself.
We are all presumed to know the law, commenced Mr. Faithful, and my friend, in order to avoid further costs, should have stated last week when the case was in the list that your Lordship had no jurisdiction. The address was on the writ, and Mr. Mason must have known that.
Mr. Mason said he did not realise until Saturday that that was a good defence.
The action was dismissed with defendants' costs.

SHANGHAI TRADE.

Messrs. Ilbert and Co.'s Piece Goods

Market Report says:— Agricultural work, which was delayed by the recent heavy rains, continues to occupy the natives of this and the neighbouring districts to the detriment of business in imports, but demand from other sources such as Szechuan and the North, which have long been more or less dormant, shows signs of disintegration. Local cotton and yarn have been purchased in moderate quantities for these outlets during the week and given freedom from disturbing political influences, the country should expand gradually into a more general one, as crop reports are good on the whole and the native money market appears to be steadily shaking itself free of the stringency, which has prevailed for some months past.

SUEZ CANAL COMPANY.

The annual general meeting of the Suez Canal Company was held, with Mr.

Jonnart in the chair, and among others present were: Sir Henry Austin Lee and Earl Granville. Mr. Jonnart, in his address spoke of the closest co-operation between the company and the naval and military authorities of the Allies, and the company had received testimonials from highest quarters. Two attacks were planned on the Canal, the first of which was a complete failure, while the enemy never even attempted to put the second in execution.
The chairman spoke with gratification of the successful issue of 100,000 new five per cent shares at 450, which were taken up in two or three days, in spite of present circumstances. Finally he announced that steps were being taken to increase the transit rates by another 50c per ton, making a total increase from April 1 last of 11c.

All the resolutions on the agenda were carried unanimously.

MATERIALS FOR LOCAL WORKING

PARTIES.

In accordance with the Resolution of the Committee passed on July

14th:—That the Executive Committee be authorised to undertake the purchase of materials for local working parties, and the issue of them on application; and that Lady May be asked to preside over a small Sub-Committee of ladies for the purpose. The resolution of April 18th so far as concerns the purchase of materials by Local Working Parties is cancelled for orders placed after this date. The Committee ask us to state that Lady May has kindly consented to preside, and that Mrs.
A. Mackenzie and Mrs. Hay have been good enough to give their services as members of this Sub-Committee. The machinery for the issue of materials is as in the notice below: It should be observed that this system replaces the previous one as far as concerns accounts of working parties for materials purchased; and that separate buying by individual working parties should be discontinued as the authority to pay bills so incurred has been withdrawn as from July 14th. Under the new arrangement free issues of materials will be made on application to the Sub-Committee, who are constituted the only buyers for working parties desiring to avail themselves of the facilities offered by the Fund. Application forms will be printed in the course of a few days.
The incidental expenses of working parties will be met as before. It is requested that all outstanding bills of any kind should be sent in as soon as possible.
Local working parties can be supplied with material free of cost on application to the Store Secretary, War Charities, City Hall, where issues will be made on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 a.m. to noon.
Working parties drawing materials from the Store are requested to supply as early as possible each month, a complete list of the articles made by them during the preceding month; with the destination to which they have been sent—whether to the City Hall or direct to the front.
The forwarding expenses of cases sent direct will be paid on application. The Committee, however, is prepared to receive completed articles at the City Hall, and to arrange for their packing and despatch; and the expressed wishes of the working parties concerning the destination of their own work will be observed.

SPORTING.

WATER POLO.

At the Naval Yard canteen, Kowloon

Naval Depot opposed the Rest, drawn from the Navy, in a water polo match on Friday. The result was a goal each.

The match was thoroughly enjoyed and arrangements are being made for a succession of similar fixtures.

SATURDAY'S TENNIS.

HONGKONG LEAGUE WINNERS V.

THE REST.

The attraction on the Hongkong C.C.'s ground on Saturday—an exhibition match between League winners and selected pairs—was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed, despite the flagging heat. The Pumphrey band was in attendance and gave a splendid programme of selections and there was also a marquee erected in which tea was served. The tobacco fee of 20 cents was charged, benefited to the extent of $35. As regards tennis there was nothing of exceptional brilliance, it was merely an exhibition in which vigorous play was almost an impossibility in such conditions. Nisbet and Kent were a weak pair and hopelessly outclassed in the doubles against Ng Sze Kwong and Wong Keong, who played with a good understanding and were five games to love before their opponents required a game. The result was 7-1 in favour of the Chinese players.

The first series of games were between the Hongkong C.C. the winners of the "A" division of the League, and selected pairs. The Club won by 35 games to 45. The Vanguard winners of the "B" division, defeated The Rest by 59 games to 40.
Mrs Nisbet presented the shields to the winning clubs at the close. Mr. Murphy represented the Hongkong C.C. and Mr. Grace the Vanguard. A cordial vote of thanks was accorded Mrs Nisbet on the motion of Mr. R. Hancock and cheers were given the ladies in the request of Mr. Lindsay Woods, Hon. Sec. for the League.
The details of the matches are appended:—

THE WAR.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

THE RUSSIAN SUCCESSES.

Kovel Threatened.

PETROGRAD, July 30.

Brody was captured without artillery preparation; it was solely the result of the irresistible dash of the infantry whose attack was so unexpected that the Austrians and Germans were unable to evacuate the enormous supplies, which were, therefore, partly destroyed by them and partly abandoned.

Brody was the junction of the armies of General Linington and General Ermoli and the Headquarters of the Austrian General Staff.

The ground from Brody to Lemberg is very hilly and powerfully defended.

The Russian successes west of Lemberg have improved their line. Indeed from Vladimir Volynsk along the main road to Turnopol the line is ideal and cannot be threatened, and is favourable to the development of the offensive.

The latest break through in the Lutsk region threatens Kovel not only from the Stokhod side but also from the south.

There are great rejoicings in Petrograd over these successes.

LATER.

The Russians are consolidating the left bank of the Stokhod and advancing on Kovel from Brody and also south of the Dniester.

UNSUCCESSFUL TURKISH OFFENSIVE.

The Turks unsuccessfully assumed the offensive west of Gumushluk. The Russians again expelled the Turks from organised positions at Siens and Kharput.

AERIAL RAIDS.

A dozen German aeroplanes dropped forty bombs at Drinsk. Russian aviators drove them off and brought down one of them.

The Russians raided Yelovka and also brought down a German machine east of Barninovitshi.

THE ITALIAN FRONT.

Pierce Fighting.

ROME, July 30.

A communiqué says: There has been fierce fighting north of Monte Cimone where the Italians gained ground.

The Alpini carried Forella Wood in the Tofana region and began an advance in the Travençolas Valley.

PATROL ENGAGEMENTS ON EGYPTIAN FRONTIER.

CAIRO, July 30.

It is officially announced that several patrol engagements took place on the 28th inst. The New Zealand Mounted Rifles inflicted 50 casualties on the enemy. Ours were of the slightest.

GREAT EXPLOSION OF MUNITIONS AT NEW YORK.

New York, July 30.

A fire which started in a munitions warehouse on a small island in New York Bay, spread to a lighter loaded with shrapnel and bullets. The exploded shells fired dynamite trucks on the wharves.

The whole country for miles around was shaken. The island is a mass of wreckage. Seventy-five persons were conveyed to hospital.

THE MECCA PILGRIMAGE.

CAIRO, July 30.

The Ministry of the Interior is studying the question of the Mecca pilgrimage. It is understood that pilgrims are asked to deposit caution money amounting to £250, £500, and £750 sterling for first, second and third class respectively. A regular service to Jeddah is being organised.

Apparently only four steamers are available at very high fares. The Government will do its utmost to facilitate the pilgrimage for the attendant expenses will restrict the numbers.

KITCHENER FUND.

London, July 30.

The Kitchener Fund now amounts to £164,000.

THE BRITISH FRONT.

SUCCESSFUL BRITISH RAIDS.

UNSUCCESSFUL GERMAN RAIDS.

London, July 30.

General Sir Douglas Haig in a communiqué says:

Successful raids were made south of Ypres and in the Loos salient.

German raids near Hohenzollern Redoubt were unsuccessful.

Last night we heavily bombarded enemy trenches and reserve areas between the Ancre and the Somme, and we exploded an enemy munition depot near Courcielle.

The Canadians raided enemy trenches at two places south of Ypres.

The Munster Fusiliers raided the Loos salient.

The enemy's casualties were severe in both cases.

Of the enemy's two raids at the Hohenzollern Redoubt, one failed to get beyond our wire; the other entered our front trench but was immediately driven out.

ON THE FRENCH FRONT.

PARIS, July 30.

A communiqué says: We dispersed an enemy reconnaissance south of Lihons and repulsed an enemy attack on the redoubt in a ravine south of Fleury.

The bombardment of Fleury, Vaux Wood and Fumin Wood has continued.

AERIAL WORK.

Three German aeroplanes were felled in the Somme region, and a fourth in Argonne.

We bombed the railway stations in the Noyon district and the railway station and military establishments at Mulheim.

THE OFFICIAL MURDER OF CAPTAIN FRYATT.

UNIVERSAL INDIGNATION.

AMSTERDAM, July 30.

The Telegraph states that the sentence on Captain Fryatt was pronounced on Thursday morning and executed in the evening on an isolated plot of ground in the harbour. An alderman of Bruges witnessed the execution.

PARIS, July 30.

The newspapers describe the execution as murder.

New York, July 30.

The newspapers condemn Captain Fryatt's execution unreservedly. The Herald contrasts it with Great Britain's treatment of submarine and Zeppelin crews. The Globe says that no pro-German in the United States can now fail to understand why the world fears German success.

LONDON, July 30. Lord Newton, who is in charge of the Prisoners' Department, stated to a Reuter representative that master merchantmen were entitled to do everything possible to protect themselves, their crews and passengers. The Germans themselves had admitted that when merchantmen resisted capture and were finally taken, the officers and crew ought to be treated as prisoners of war. It must be remembered that when the incident occurred—March 1915, not 1916 as stated—the Germans were sinking even neutral ships without warning.

It would be rash to suppose that Great Britain would in no circumstances retaliate. The Cabinet was seriously giving its attention to the affair. It was impossible to confine oneself to fruitless expostulation. This may be the prelude to even more savage German warfare. In itself it evidenced the desperate situation in which Germany is placed.

BURMA BEANS.

LONDON, July 30.

An analysis of Topy beans grown in Burma made by the Imperial Institute indicates that the beans possess a high food value. It is stated that they should find a ready sale in the United Kingdom and some of the allied countries as a substitute for the small haricot beans, and it is suggested that they should obtain a good footing in the market.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

A GREAT RUSSIAN VICTORY.

PETROGRAD, July 30.

A communiqué states: An incomplete estimate of the Russian captures records that General Brusilov on the 28th and 29th inst. captured 32,000 Austro-Germans, 114 guns, including 29 heavy guns. Of these 21 heavy and 85 machine-guns were taken by General Letchitak. A total of 13,569 prisoners were taken by General Sakharoff in the three days' fighting at Brody. Altogether General Sakharoff took 39,152 prisoners and 49 guns, including 17 heavy, and 100 machine-guns, and huge quantities of war material between the 18th and 28th inst. These figures are exclusive of 1,600 officers captured.

PROGRESS CONTINUED.

The victorious progress of the Russians was continued on Saturday in the Stokhod and Kovel regions; also south of the Dniester in the direction of Stanislaw, the enemy everywhere retreating.

"DEVIL'S WOOD."

LONDON, July 30.

Mr. Philip Gibbs, in a message from the front, says:

Devil's Wood has been nicknamed by the troops "Devil's Wood."

An officer said: "I wish to goodness we could wipe the place off the map, to cleanse the ground of the filthy wreckage and the trees, which were a death-trap to so many good fellows. It looks like a small wood crowded with corpses, which makes it easily the worst place on earth."

When the British Infantry advanced on Thursday they had to stumble over corpses and logs across the sunken road which the South Africans, and afterwards the Scots Greys, had converted into a trench, nicknamed it "Prince's Street." Simultaneously, another attack was made from Longueval with the object of joining the men advancing. This will make the history of the fighting for "Devil's Wood" since the 14th inst. one of the most wonderful things for sheer stubborn courage in the whole of the great battle.

S.S. "APPAM" RESTORED.

UNITED STATES NEUTRALITY VIOLATED BY GERMANS.

NORFOLK (VIRGINIA), July 29.

The Federal Court has ordered the restoration of the steamer Appam to her British owners.

It was decided that a prize cannot be brought within neutral waters without a convoy, and that the manner in which the Appam was brought in was a violation of United States neutrality.

HEROES OF WITTENBERG.

LONDON, July 30.

The Order of St. John of Jerusalem has conferred gold medals upon Surgeons Major Priestley and Captains Vidal and Lander for life-saving at the Wittenberg prisoners' camp.

KING OF DENMARK'S NARROW ESCAPE.

COPENHAGEN, July 30.

The King of Denmark, while sailing alone in a small boat near Aarhus, was captured. His Majesty clung to the bottom of the boat, and was eventually rescued, being none the worse for his long immersion.

G.C.M.G.

LONDON, July 30.

His Majesty has conferred on the Duke of Devonshire the Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George.

OPIMUM RESTRICTIONS.

LONDON, July 30.

The object of the prohibition of opium is to check smuggling from the United Kingdom to the Far East and to the United States. Bona fide medical preparations containing opium are exempt, but all dealings in the drug itself are forbidden, except under licence. The preparation of opium for smoking is also made an offence.

IRISH AND OTHER BULLS.

QUAINT THINGS TO BE FOUND IN PRINTERS' PIE.

Under the title The Bull Ring at Westminster, Sir Henry Lucy contributes to Printers' Pie some specimens of the quaint things he has heard and read of.

O'Connor Power, in the early afternoon, was guilty of this. "Since the Government have let the cat out of the bag there is nothing to be done but take the bull by the horns."

Mr. Spurgeon once told Sir Henry that for bulls candidates for the ministry could match politicians. He quoted from letters he had himself received: "Let us give up the idea of our mind that we may receive the latter rain." "I hope the widow's mite (a small boy in an orphanage) may not spread his branches until it becomes a Hercules in your hands."

"We thank Thee for this spark of grace," water it, Lord."

It was in connection with an industrial difficulty, says Sir Henry, that an Irish member from the City reported to an entranced House of Commons how, at a meeting of shareholders, one attempted to throw a bombshell at the board. "But," he triumphantly added, the chairman knocked it into a cocked hat long before it was brought forward. "The prize for pre-eminence in 'bulling' Sir Henry will not award, but give high place in the competition to Sir William Hart Dyke, for remarking: 'Confess me right hon. friend! As you go to the top of the tree and catch a very large fish.'"

NEWS FROM HOME.

(From Mr. New Correspondent.)

LONDON, July 29.

PENSION RUDDLE.

The worst point of the situation at present is the practical neglect of the pensions scheme for disabled soldiers and sailors. Many men have been compelled to serve, but have subsequently developed such ailments as have caused them to be discharged. No pension has been allowed them on the ground that their ailments were constitutional and not caused by war or by official bodies, some safeguards must be introduced against its being rendered nugatory by the German exactions. Warsaw is now spending on food alone for its destitute population more than its total income, and the German authorities continue to burden it with heavy taxation, requisitions, and orders for supplies. If relief from outside lightens the crushing burdens of the Polish municipalities, will not the German authorities treat it as a welcome opportunity for imposing fresh taxation?

In spite of the constant denials of the removal of food supplies from Russian Poland to Germany, it is now openly announced that there is to be a large exportation of fruit, which by official notice is to be used partly in the area of occupation itself, while a great part of the fruit of all kinds will be taken away into Germany and used there. The total amount to be delivered in wagons in the chief markets centres of Germany. Having announced their intention about the fruit, the German authorities are now making arrangements for the exportation of quantities of geese after the beginning of July; they will be distributed all over the German Empire. On July 15 the organised exportation of eggs will begin.

THE STARVATION OF POLAND.

An article from a correspondent of The Times tells of a city of 1,000,000 people suffering from starvation and with industry at a standstill. This is Warsaw, and yet it is compelled by the German authorities to pay exaction which must add financial ruin to the misery of the inhabitants. "A city with a million inhabitants cannot be fed except by a revival of its trade," says Prince Lubomirski. This has to be kept in mind when discussing any relief scheme. Doubt will not remedy the German-made misery in Poland, for a real cure could be found only in a thorough change of the German system. Yet if that cannot be attained and the highly desirable relief work is to be undertaken, whether by private people or by official bodies, some safeguards must be introduced against its being rendered nugatory by the German exactions. Warsaw is now spending on food alone for its destitute population more than its total income, and the German authorities continue to burden it with heavy taxation, requisitions, and orders for supplies. If relief from outside lightens the crushing burdens of the Polish municipalities, will not the German authorities treat it as a welcome opportunity for imposing fresh taxation?

GERMANY'S FOOD PROBLEM.

A recent issue of the Berlin Volks-Zeitung sums up the food situation in Germany as follows:

It is no longer any secret that certain supplies are short, not so much as a result of the friendly efforts of our enemies, but as a result of last year's poor harvest. It is true that we do not need to worry about bread. We have saved enough by economic administration to reach to the new harvest. We shall even be able to increase the ration for manual labourers. We shall also come through with potatoes even though with scant rations, until the early crop. But meat and fat supplies, as is well-known, leave much to be desired. The last annual census showed only slightly over 14,000,000 swine, but we want even in a year or more to make up in some degree what is lacking. The number of meat cattle had decreased less than was supposed, but what we lack is cattle fit for butchering. The older animals are consumed, and the army's meat requires more and more of the younger animals unfit for slaughtering must be taken. In no circumstances must we touch milk cows or we shall endanger the milk supply of our children. Hence, until animals fit for slaughter have grown up, we must impose the most extreme limitations on meat consumption. Meat rations will become very small, without distinction in the whole German Empire. It does not require, furthermore, to be said that the butter scarcity compels the greatest possible sparing of milk cows since the butter we import from abroad eats up enormous sums of money.

DULCE DOMUM.

Enough for me (a year ago).
A tropic sky, the China sea Green padi field and rubber tree.
And palm leaves flapping to and fro about My shady bungalow.
Enough for me.
To-day a dugout on a height Above a shadeless plain—its three By eight and leaky as can be.
And rats and frogs come in at night:
Sounds a bit mouldy, yet it's quite Enough for me.
